

The Title of Article 11 is not amended.

Amend Section 1750.

Subsection (a) is amended by replacing the words “mobilehome park owner or operator, and to the registered owner of a manufactured home, mobilehome, or recreational vehicle located within a park” with “cited person, as defined by Section 1002,” because it is more accurate in describing who the violator is. The title “Health and Safety Code” is added to identify the code section.

Subsection (b) is amended editorially.

There are no other amendments to this section.

The Reference Note is amended editorially.

Amend Section 1752.

Subsection (a) is amended editorially.

Subsection (b) is amended by deleting the reference to the Health and Safety Code section because it is already referenced in subsection (a) and does not need repeating.

Subsection (b)(1) is amended by replacing the word “an” with “one or more” because the existing language could be interpreted to mean that only one violation could be addressed during a conference.

Subsections (b)(2) and (3) are amended to correct grammar.

Subsections (c) and (c)(1) have no amendments.

Subsection (c)(2) is amended by striking reference to days of the week that are considered workdays, because “working days” is included in the definitions of this chapter.

Subsections (d) through (f)(1) have no amendments.

Subsection (f)(2) is amended by striking “as provided for in subsection 1754(d).” because the reference to “good cause” is defined in subsection 1002 (g).

Amend Section 1754.

Subsection (a) is amended by adding the phrase “related to a violation” to clearly define what this subsection relates to.

Subsection (b) is amended by rewriting the language editorially for clarity.

Subsection (c) is renumbered from previous subsection (b)(1) to maintain the usual outline format of regulations. There are no other amendments.

Subsection (c)(1) is renumbered from previous subsection (b)(1)(A). There are no other amendments.

Subsection (c)(2) is renumbered from previous subsection (b)(1)(B) It is amended by adding the language “or such longer period of time allowed by the enforcement agency,” and “or greater period of time as determined by the enforcement agency.” to allow the enforcement agency to have reasonable flexibility to alter the required time as permitted in HSC 18402.

Subsection (d)(1) and (2) are renumbered from previous subsection (c) because of the renumbering above. There are no other amendments.

Old Subsection (d) is relocated to section 1002(g) “Good Cause” in the definitions section for this chapter. This is necessary so the definition can easily be found for use by all readers.

Subsection (e) is amended editorially.

The Reference Note is amended editorially.

Amend Section 1756.

Subsection (a) is amended by replacing the words “manufactured home, mobilehome, or recreational vehicle” with “unit” because they are incorporated in the definition of “unit”.

Subsection (b) is not amended.

Subsection (b)(1) is amended by striking reference to Health and Safety Code Section 18420 because it is already referenced in the previous subsection and it is unnecessary to reference it again.

Subsection (b)(2) is amended by adding the word “written” to specify the format of the determination.

Subsections (c) through (d)(1) are not amended.

Subsection (d)(2) is amended by striking the sentence ““Good cause” shall have the same meaning as provided in subsection 1754(d).” because this subsection has been relocated to subsection 1002 (g), and is unnecessary.

Subsection (d)(3) is amended editorially.

Subsections (e) through (f) have no amendments.

Subsection (f)(1) is amended editorially.

Subsection (f)(2) has no amendments.

The Reference Note is amended editorially.

Amend Section 1758.

Subsection (a) is amended by replacing the words “manufactured home, mobilehome, or recreational vehicle” with “unit” because they are incorporated in the definition of unit.

Subsection (a)(1) is amended by inserting “Health and Safety Code” before the word “Section” to clarify the reference.

Subsections (a)(2) through (b)(4) are not amended.

Subsection (c) is amended editorially.

Subsection (c)(1) is not amended.

Subsection (c)(2) is amended editorially.

Subsection (c)(3) is not amended.

Subsection (d) is amended editorially.

Subsection (e) is new text that is added to inform the reader that unless the department determines there is a high likelihood that the local enforcement agency was incorrect in issuing the notice of violation, based on the petition and materials submitted with the petition, there will be no extension of time for correction of the violation. This is necessary because the petition process is sometimes used as a delay tactic to gain time for repairs that are essential.

The Reference Note is amended editorially.
